Hitler poses with members of the group's paramilitary organization, the Sturmabteilung, known by its initials, "SA"

Some commentators believe that this photo is of a later date, c.1933, or c.1934

Note:

The Sturmabteilung, Storm Division, or Battalion, abbreviated SA and usually translated as stormtroops or stormtroopers, functioned as a paramilitary organization of the Nazi Party

The SA played a key role in Hitler's rise to power during the 1920s and 1930s

SA members were often called "brown-shirts" in consequence of the color of their uniforms. It is believed that brown-colored shirts were chosen as the SA uniform because large quantities of them were cheaply available after World War I, having originally been ordered, during the war, for colonial troops posted to Germany's former African colonies
