Note:

The above circles identify a displaced segment in a Key of Atlantis energy (psychomagnetheric) formation, which is significantly, and negatively, amplified by a square of negative focus - hence the difficult challenges and manifestations (especially unexpected health and social issues) that many people are now experiencing in their lives.

However, on the positive side, this is also an unprecedented period of transformative energy (not good or bad - just transformative) that an individual can utilise to attract and manifest that which they want/desire into their lives.

How? One key, to positively utilize (or at least to protect from) this energy, lies in synchronising one's personal life-force energy flow with the universal flow and the appropriate programming / awakening / focussing of one's subconscious mind. Hence the recent gift of a suitable program to our newsletter subscribers.

Nevertheless, there are many approaches to utilizing / dealing with this kind of energy, and each person must find that which works for them.

In terms of duration, this energy cycle, in its various forms and manifestations, will continue until 2026.

Yes, we are indeed living in exciting times.
